RICHMOND TOBACCO MARKET.

RICHMOND, VA., November 17.—No auction sales to-day, and private sales very light.

Revenue collections: Cigars and cigarettes, $187.39. Tobacco, $2,983.76. Total, $2,281.66.

reites, $187.30. Tobacco, $2,050.70. Total, $2,281.05. Private sales for week: Wrappers, $5; smokers, $6; cutters, $15; fillers, $39; dark leaf, $81; scrap, 4; lugs, $121. total, $58 hogsheads; against $65 hogsheads last week, and $202 hogsheads for corresponding week last year.

Revenue collections for week: Cgars and cigarettes, $12,739.32; tobacco, $15,424.71. Total, $23,184.63.

The only interesting feature of the market this week was the very large sales of dark shipping tobaccos, which were in good demand, at very good figures. Lugs sold as usual, while all old brights were quiet in point of sales, with a good inquiry for cutters and smokers, but small sales.

Bright loose sales have been small bright loose sairs have been small throughout the week on account of the bad weather, which has prevented farm-ers from shipping their tobacco. The mar-ket closed strong on all grades except the lowest grades, which, however, were stronger than last week, but still rather easy.

easy.
From present weather indications it seems as if we will shortly have a season, and if that is the case, we will have large breaks next week. NEW YORK PRODUCE MARKET.
